

CANTERBURY HILLS CAMP RESOURCE TEAM 101

A QUICK GUIDE TO EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW
ABOUT WORKING ON RT

WHAT IS THE RESOURCE TEAM?

The Canterbury Hills Camp Resource Team (RT) works collaboratively with the Camp Director to oversee all aspects of our summer camp programs. This is a senior level staff position for those looking to take on increased responsibility and leadership in a camp setting. All RT members work from May - August and balance team and individual responsibilities throughout.

MAY HIGHLIGHTS

Work onsite daily, Monday - Friday

- Participate in team training and skill development
- Plan and implement a weekend long staff training event
- Assign "areas of focus" for each RT member

JUNE HIGHLIGHTS

Work onsite daily, Monday - Friday until mid June.

Live onsite full time beginning in mid June

- Complete detailed planning for summer programs
- Develop Leader-in-Training (LIT) teaching sessions
- Complete certification/specialized training for individual "areas of focus"
- Plan and implement Family Camp weekend
- Plan and implement a week long staff training event

JULY & AUGUST HIGHLIGHTS

Live onsite overseeing weekly camp programs each
Sunday - Friday

- Mentor summer staff in creative programming, facilitation, problem solving, and team building
- Connect with campers and camper families
- Oversee smooth implementation of each "area of focus"

WHAT IS AN "AREA OF FOCUS"?

As a whole the Resource Team is responsible for all aspects of the big picture of camp. Individually, RT members are assigned specific parts of this picture to take the supervisory lead on. Areas of focus are assigned based on each team members strengths, interests, and opportunities for growth. Examples of areas of focus at Canterbury include:

- Day Camp
- Overnight Camp
- Adventure Camp
- Health and Wellness
- LIT Program
- Integration
- Food Services
- Social Media
- High Ropes
- Pool
